Big Day Tomorrow
Ten Years Away
What is Beyond
Hoover and Germany

By Arthur Brisbane

Copyright, 1928, by Star Co.
THE BIG DAY comes tomorrow, and the two most deeply interested probably feel uncertain.

The usual thing will happen. No need to say exactly what it is, in this case. Another day of happiness for both candidates means a good deal.

The biggest vote ever cast in a recent election by many millions. This is due, not alone to deep interest in the issues, but especially to the radio, carrying the personality of candidates into the homes.

Whereas, in former elections, a few hundred of thousands heard speeches and arguments, in this campaign, tens of millions listened, heard distinctly and based opinions on voice and personality, more than on arguments or promises.

The two issues brought to the surface, and a third that should influence no vote, but that will influence millions, unfortunately arouses the strongest human emotions.

The big issues, openly discussed, on both sides, are PROHIBITION and PROSPERITY. Prohibition argument is based on much sincerity, and much bitterness. Prosperity a question of common sense.

And prosperity will decide this election. If the voters believe that the country is well run, prosperous, with promise of continuing and increasing prosperity, they will vote to prolong the Republican administration.

If they agree with Mr. Raskob, that our prosperity is a myth, and that a Democratic administration would do better, they will vote the Democratic ticket.

And there is nothing so cold about that. Government is established, first to provide justice, then to provide justice.

U. S. VOTE Baffles Chiefs: EVEN BETTING ON STATE

N. H. STATE SECRETARY RESIGNS; TO HOLD JOB TILL AFTER ELECTION

By BERT FORD

Concord, N. H., Nov. 5.—Secretary of State Hobart Pillsbury was today arrested on a charge of embezzling public funds. A short time later he resigned his office.

According to Governor Huntley M. Pease, Pillsbury tendered his resignation in person, the State secretary confessed to a misappropriation of funds in connection with the expenditures of his office. In order not to invalidate tomorrow's election, Governor Pease

Rothstein Was Shot in Debt Row

New York, Nov. 5 (AP).—Seeking an explanation of the mysterious shooting of Arnold Rothstein, gambler and race track follower, police announced today they wanted to question George "Rump" McManus, reported to be a Broadway card game operator. No charge has been lodged against McManus, but police started an intensive search for him.

Rothstein, in a serious condition in Belvidere Hospital, said he had been in his apartment, and the police were looking for him.

NEW CAMPAIGN ISSUES FOR VOTERS TO DECIDE PUT LEADERS IN DOUBT

Betting on the election on the Boston Stock Exchange today shifted from odds of 4 to 1 on Hoover, to odds of 3 to 1 on the Republican candidate. On the Massachusetts vote the betting was practically even with "short-enders" looking for 10 to 8 odds on either nominee.

By GEORGE R. HOLMES,
International News Correspondent.
New York, Nov. 5.—The most unusual and complex presidential campaign in the political history of the country raged today.

The struggle to the state today with the leaders of the two sides in doubt. "We won't," said the state today, "the state today."

The struggle to the state today with the leaders of the two sides in doubt. "We won't," said the state today, "the state today."

Both Parties Predict Victory Tomorrow

(By the Associated Press)
Governor Smith says a Democratic victory is clearly indicated.

Senator Curtis predicts "an overwhelming Republican victory."

Senator Robinson believes "the Democrats will win."

The Republican National Committee formally predicts Hoover will receive largest vote ever given a Republican presidential candidate.

Chairman Work of the Republican National Committee estimates that Hoover will receive 400 electoral votes.

Chairman Raskob of the Democratic National Committee has "an abiding faith" that "an avalanche of votes" will be cast for Smith.

Ralph F. Williams, vice chairman of Republican National Committee, expects Hoover to win by electoral vote of 345.

Senator Simmons of North Carolina, a Democrat opposing Smith, predicts Republicans will carry his state by 3,000 and win also in Virginia, Florida, Oklahoma, Missouri, Kentucky and West Virginia, and possibly in Alabama, Texas, Georgia and Maryland.

Josephus Dan's, Wilson's Secretary of the Navy, expects South to vote solidly for Smith.

Citizens of Massachusetts: Remember Four Years Ago Tonight!

This Great American Made You a Promise
—And Kept It!

Four years ago tonight in a radio address, Calvin Coolidge, on the eve of his election to the Presidency of the United States, made the people a solemn promise—that he would continue, if elected, to provide a business-like leadership.

President Coolidge has kept his word to the people. In a hundred different ways this has been demonstrated—in the increased comfort in American homes—in the increased deposits in the savings banks—in the reduction of personal and corporate taxes, IN WAYS WHICH COUNT IN THE LIVES OF EVERY ONE OF US.

No one has been able to deny this fact—they? cannot.

Herbert Hoover has promised you that he will carry on the policies of President Coolidge.

Herbert Hoover will keep his word. Remember this tomorrow when you vote.

CERO LIFE PLEA UP TO JUSTICE HOLMES

Acting on instructions telephoned from his associate, William R. Schurton, at Philadelphia, Maurice Peltier, counsel for Gangi Cero, condemned to die in the electric chair this week for murder, went to Havre today seeking from Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes of the United States Supreme Court a review of the case.

Schurton, chief counsel for Cero, left for Washington on Saturday to seek a writ of certiorari from one of the high court justices.

He said today in his telephone conversation that he would be unable to get back to Boston in time to see Justice Holmes, but he gave no further information.

Cero, under a reprieve granted by Governor Fuller, cannot be executed before Wednesday.

German Girl Gets Grip on Stowaway's Heart

By WALTER P. DIETZEL

International News Service Staff Correspondent

Berlin, Nov. 5.—Clarence ("Red") Terhune, the 19-year-old St. Louis boy who soared into fame as a stowaway on the Graf Zeppelin on her transatlantic home voyage, blocked traffic in Unter Den Linden—the Broadway of Berlin—when he appeared on the balcony of the Hotel Adlon this afternoon.

Interest in the young American adventurer was heightened by reports that he was losing his heart to a black-eyed German fraulein, the daughter of a prominent Berlin attorney, whom he met last night for the first time.

A big crowd, that kept growing in size every minute, gathered in front of the hotel and began shouting a request for "Red" to show himself. When the youth appeared upon the balcony men and women began a concerted shout for his autograph. The traffic police were powerless.

Finally a policeman made his way to the balcony and asked "Red" at a personal favor to the police force to go inside as the crowd could be dispersed.

One 1-year-old German lad, Alfred Krause, was so enthusiastic he got through the police line and climbed the front of the hotel to the balcony where he embraced "Red."

Terhune again took oaths on today to deny a report printed here that a passenger on the Graf had helped him to stow himself away on the ship. He said he planned the trip himself and no one else knew of his plans.

24 COMMUNIST PICKETS FINED $20 EACH

Twenty-four members of the Communist party in municipal court today were found guilty of snarling and loitering in connection with picketing the State House Saturday in an attempt to revive the Scott-Vanetti controversy.

Judge Michael Cress imposed the maximum fine of $20 each and declared the placards they carried were vicious and unnecessary.

Harry Clatter, candidate for Secretary of State on the Workers' party ticket, was held in $1000 on an additional charge of criminal slander. Cress, according to the police, carried a sign reading: "Faster the murders of Scott and Vanetti."

All appealed, and Judge Cress held the other defendants in $50 each, disregarding the plea of counsel that they be sentenced to go on their own recognizance.

ZEPP AND U. S. TRIO GREETED BY HINDENBURG

By OTTO L. TOLKUSCH,
International News Correspondent.

Berlin, Nov. 5.—The crew of the German transatlantic dirigible Graf Zeppelin and the three United States naval officers who crossed in the airship were received in audience today by President Hindenburg, who expressed the hope that such flights would bring Germany in closer friendship with faraway countries.

After shaking hands with his visitors the President addressed them, saying:

"I want to express my esteem and admiration for your national deed and manner in which the Zeppelins defied storms and fog. Your wonderful navigation in America, for which we are most grateful, shows that the Zeppelins are admirably suited to bringing nations, which are now separated by seas, closer together."

Turning to the three United States naval officers President von Hindenburg said:

"I hope this will further cement our friendship."

The three Americans are Commander R. M. Pierce, executive officer of the Lakehurst, N. J., naval station; Lieut. Charles C. Bush of Boston, watch officer of the Los Angeles, and Lieut. T. G. W. Settle, executive officer of the Los Angeles. Those who made the trip from Friedrichshafen to Berlin as guests, besides the American officers, were Mrs. Clara Adams of Tampa, Fla., only woman on the airship; return flight from America; Miss Lillian E. Scherer, daughter of Dr. Hugo Scherer, the ship's commander; Ludwig Durrer, chief constructor of the Zeppelin; Dr. Maybach, who built her five motors; Director-General Commandant of the Zeppelin works, and newspaper men.

The first was moved to Staden next after an hour's effort, following a fight over the daily decorated city, while crowds in the streets cheered and waved hats and handkerchiefs.

Berlin, Nov. 4.—I got my biggest thrill today since I hid myself a week ago in the mail bags on the Graf Zeppelin at Lakehurst.

I got a telephone call from my sister, Mrs. Edna Hall, from St. Louis, 5000 miles away from here.

While it took me three days to get to Germany traveling by the fastest passenger service in the world, it took only five minutes for sister's voice to get here from St. Louis. It was one of those events which give a fellow an awful thrill.

As a result of this call I have decided to obey sister's request that I return to America at once. I will probably sail in two or three days. Possibly on the Leviathan, as I prefer to ride on an American boat if possible.

GUEST AT PLAY

Tonight I was the guest at a performance of a musical play called Casanova, having been invited by the show's star, Michael Bolnen and his wife, Mary Lewis, who sings at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York. It was a beautiful show and something like the shows that Mr. Ziegfeld produces back home—lots of beautiful girls and music and pretty stage displays and settings.

I had many callers today in my rooms at the Adlon Hotel, most of them calling me the "blind passenger," which is the German name for stowaway.

Over here they say I was the highest paid dishwasher in the world. For washing dishes three days aboard the Graf Zeppelin, I got this trip here, something which cost the regular passengers $3000. That made my wages really $1000 a day.

I never expect to receive such high pay again in my life. I had an enjoyable ride about Berlin today and saw historical and interesting points. I got a great kick out of seeing the Kaiser's old palace and they even pointed out holes made by bullets when machine guns were pointed at the building during the revolution.

REAL HOME DINNER

It was also interesting to get a look at President Hindenburg's official home. In front of this place two soldiers stand guard in two hour shifts. While on their posts they are not permitted to move a muscle except to shift their guns from one hand to the other every half hour.

I was entertained at dinner today at the home of a prominent American. Gee, it was surely good to have some old-fashioned roast beef and gravy and baked potatoes and carrots mixed with peas, etc.—just like we get over in the United States.

It was the first real home-like meal I have had since leaving my boarding house at Rye, N. Y.

I guess I have been asked to taste about 25 different kinds of wine and liquor since coming here and while I tasted them I can't seem to like any of that stuff. I also have been offered a lot of cigarettes and cigars but those also I cannot stand.

FREE 3 WOMEN FROM EARRING HUSBANDS

Unfaithfulness and squandering were charged against earring husbands in 34th Street probate court today where three wives were granted divorce by Judge Arthur E. Rosen in an unopposed session of divorce.

Mrs. Alaraine M. Ray of Newton was divorced from George M. Ray of Boston, whom she married June 21, 1915. Two detectives told of following Ray to Providence where they found him with another woman.

Mrs. Ray said about three years ago her husband started to remain away from home over the weekends and she found bills in his pockets indicating week-end expenses for two. A divorce was granted Mrs. Mary C. Carroon of No. 141 Harvard st., Cambridge, after she told of the cruelty of her husband, Anthony Carroon. The couple were married July 28, 1921.

She said they had an argument because he wanted to sell some dishes which were not paid for. "He pushed me around, struck me in the face, blackened my eye and knocked me to the floor," she said.

"I asked him about a letter from a woman I found in his pocket," she told the court, "and a telephone book. He became very angry and threw it at me with all his force. It struck me in the head. He came home the next morning very drunk. I took my baby and went to my mother's."

On a charge of cruelty and abuse, Mrs. William A. Barnard of Malden was granted a divorce from J. Warren Barnard, whom she married December 6, 1921, at Malden.

SETTLE SLATER MILL CASE OUT OF COURT

Worcester, Nov. 5.—The suit of Slater & Sons, Inc., of Worcester, against J. P. Brown of Boston, former president of the Slater mill, ended suddenly today in Superior Court when counsel for both sides informed the court that a settlement had been reached.

In the suit, Slater & Sons, Inc., sought an accounting from Brown on allegations that Brown, through his former connection with the Slater mill, was entitled to acquire the Slater mill at a price of only $100,000.

Teeth Grow Whiter

When film is removed this way

Now special film-removing dentifrice whitens amazingly when ordinary methods fail.

SCIENCE has discovered the chief source of common tooth and gum disorders and of dull, ugly teeth. It is a film that forms on teeth and clings so stubbornly brushing cannot remove it successfully.

You can feel film with your tongue—a slippery, sticky coating. It clings to teeth and gets into crevices and stays. It absorbs stains from food and smoking. Germs by millions breed in it and they, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

To remove film, dentists prescribe the special film-removing dentifrice called Pepsodent.

In a few days teeth grow white and begin to sparkle. Get Pepsodent at any drug counter or write for free 10-day supply to The Pepsodent Co., 1104 S. Wabash Ave., Chicago.

Moving the Business of AMERICA

ON the control charts of every business of America, one line keeps edging ominously upward—the cost of doing business. To hold that line down—to keep it in right relationship with gross business—forms one of the major problems facing executives today.

Production has become simply a matter of the blue-prints of the engineer. But volume production demands volume sales, and volume sales demand adequate distribution and adequate advertising.

Before adequate distribution can be secured, the dealer of today insists on knowing what manufacturers plan to do to move merchandise from his shelves in the quickest possible time.

The year 1921 taught both manufacturer and dealer a drastic lesson as to the value of turn-over. That year emphasized the necessity for sales pressure by the speediest, most flexible, and most efficient methods. It established for all time the value of newspaper advertising as the most powerful sales lever that can be employed to keep production moving speedily and in orderly channels from maker to dealer, from dealer to user.

No other advertising forms so large and so vital a part of the routine life of the American citizen. No other medium enables the seller to place his offering so promptly, so quickly, so rapidly, so forcibly, and so economically, before the eyes of the buyer.

In eighteen of the key markets of America, white spots of prosperity on every sales chart, the twenty-eight newspapers of the Hearst Organization sell the products of the nation's industry.

These dominant newspapers contact one out of every five readers of American newspapers. They go into more than 5,000,000 homes. They bring to more than 20,000,000 people, from Boston to Seattle, from Milwaukee to San Antonio, the advertising news of products of every kind, price, and use. These people represent every income class, every need, every taste. They are in the market for all commodities—buyers of merchandise of every price-range. They are so large a part of the newspaper reading public of America that Hearst Newspaper circulation represents a true cross-section of the general public—the advertiser's public.

Counting as their readers one-fifth of America's enormous buying power, Hearst Newspapers offer the largest single market in the country—more than 20,000,000 representative buyers of advertised products—more than 20,000,000 people whose needs and purchases play an essential part in moving the business of America.

N. E. Weather Fair, Rain in Midwest, for Election

Washington, Nov. 5 (AP)—A variety of weather is indicated for America's trip tomorrow to the voting booth.

For the entire Atlantic seaboard the forecast is fair with rising temperatures in the states south of New England. Heavy rains are predicted, too, for the east Gulf states and the Mississippi valley, with the exception of western portions of Tennessee and Kentucky, where there may be showers in the afternoon.

Clouds and probable rain are forecast for Illinois, Minnesota, Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, Nebraska, and Kansas and fair weather in the Dakotas. Showers are forecast for Texas, the mountain and plateau states, and for isolated sections, have a prospect of fairly good weather.

CRIMSON CAN LOSE

What's on your mind very often depends upon what's on your feet....

Pictured above you see two men. One is reading his paper and is enjoying it, but the man to his left cannot do either, for he has something to worry about. Yes, it is quite obvious, his feet are bothering him. And that is the way with a good many men who fail to get their shoes at Coward's. For shoes that have not been designed to give arches proper support and to allow toes their full play cannot be expected to provide ease and comfort. To be certain that your feet are well cared for, be certain that your shoes are from one of the Coward Stores.

TRUE CONFESSIONS

A few days ago I wrote a letter to Herbert Hoover pleading him my support in the present campaign. The same day I wrote another letter while phoning Al Smith's support. You could have knocked me down with a feather when I discovered that I had put Hoover's letter in Smith's envelope.

FOR COLDS

To break a cold harmlessly and in a hurry try a Bayer Aspirin tablet. And for headache. The action of Aspirin is very efficient, too, in cases of neuralgia, neuritis, even rheumatism and lumbago! And there's no after effect; doctors give Aspirin to children—often infants. Whenever there's pain, think of Aspirin. The genuine Bayer Aspirin has Bayer on the box and on every tablet. All druggists, with proven directions.

SOME GOOD FRENCH PROVERBS

ABSOLUTE Liberty for everybody would be absolute autocracy for the strongest. Order has limits, disorder has no limits.

Places die as well as men.

The worst thing about error is not that it is untrue, but that it is blind, passionate and egotistic.

When you act, observe the rules; when you pass judgment, observe the exceptions.

If virtue makes good manners, good manners also make virtue.

Good taste is an essential part of good morals.

The attention of the listener in a conversation is like the accompaniment in music.

Every mind should keep a "quote room."

It is intolerable to discuss with a mind every room of which is taken.

Hospitality is the charm of intelligence.

Where one is not understood one is always confused.

We cannot pleasantly discuss with anyone who is not already half of our opinion.

We should pride ourselves on our sincerity, not on our infallibility.

People are persuaded by their own reasons, not by yours.

It is not another's opinion that displeases you, but his disposition to make you adopt it.

Nothing does a woman so much honor as her patience; and nothing does her so little honor as the patience of her husband.

The wish to be under no obligation to anyone is the subtlest form of egotism.

The heart should go before the mind, and tolerance should always march before truth.

Those who are busy making themselves loved have no time to make themselves unhappy.

It is our impotence that irritate us, never to powers.

It is a man's petty pleasures that make him petty.

Questions mark the force of the mind; answers mark its skill.

Two classes of people are equally charming and equally needed: those who do and say beautiful things, and those who appreciate them.

The body shows the species; only the face shows the personality.

AVOID DIZZY SPELLS

Never well. Always tired and fagged out. Beauty faded away by neglect. To be beautiful and to keep youth the system must be free from poisonous backwash of constipation which often causes dizzy spells for 20 years. Dr. P. M. Edwards gives his patients, in place of calomel, a compound of vegetable impurities mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. Known by their olive color, they free the system of poisons, and restore health, energy, beauty. You need never have yellow complexion, dull eyes, coated tongue, troubling headache—all signs that your bowels are clogged, have a laxative. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly. They act smoothly and without griping. How much better you'll feel and look! Everywhere where men and women who know the value of good health, like Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. All druggists, 150, 300 and 600.

MARRIAGE is an ancient institution on which anybody is always trying to put "modern improvements." But like colonial furniture, while it may not be comfortable it can't be improved on.

It is some other paradoxical that we should be sentenced to the life of matrimony by a ceremony—and absolved from it by a justice.

The chief cause of all the trouble in marriage is that before the wedding we look for "Perfection"—at least for "improvements." Most people rush into marriage blindly.

The old-fashioned man looked upon marriage as a poverty and an obligation. The modern man regards it as an accident, an incident, a sentence or an adventure.

It is not until he has tried to find happiness in everything else that he discovers that having "somebody who belongs" is the one thing that makes life worth living.
